SUNRISE COMMUNITY LEARNING CENTRE

Institutional Code of Conduct & Operational Framework

OFFICIAL GOVERNANCE DOCUMENT

Document ID:	SCLC-RULEBOOK-2026-V1
Version:	1.0 (Final)
Effective Date:	1 September 2026
Target Audience:	Patrons, Visitors, Staff, Students, and Administrators
System Compatibility:	Optimized for RAG / AI Knowledge Retrieval

A comprehensive regulatory framework governing rights, duties, facilities access, dispute resolution, and administrative procedures at Sunrise Community Learning Centre (SCLC). Designed for seamless integration with the Digital Legal Awareness Assistant & Know Your Rights (KYR) Framework.

Table of Contents

1. About the Institution 2
2. General Principles 2
3. Rights Framework 2
4. Duties and Responsibilities 3
5. Restrictions and Prohibited Conduct 3
6. Standard Operating Procedures 4
7. Complaints, Grievances and Remedies 5
8. Disciplinary Measures and Enforcement 5
9. Emergency, Safety and Security Protocols 6
10. Rulebook Versioning and Governance 6
11. Know Your Rights (KYR) Summary Matrix 7

1. About the Institution

Rule 1.1 (Institutional Mandate): The Sunrise Community Learning Centre (SCLC) is a non-profit community facility dedicated to providing public access to educational resources, digital tools, vocational workshops, and legal awareness materials. SCLC operates under a public trust model designed to foster lifelong learning and digital literacy.

Rule 1.2 (Scope and Jurisdiction): These rules, regulations, and operational policies apply universally to all individuals present on SCLC premises, including enrolled students, casual library patrons, visiting researchers, event guests, contractors, administrative staff, and facility instructors.

Rule 1.3 (Digital Assistant Integration): This document serves as the primary ground-truth knowledge base for the SCLC Digital Legal Awareness Assistant & Know Your Rights (KYR) Framework. Rules are structured with explicit identifiers to enable precise automated retrieval and user guidance.

2. General Principles

Rule 2.1 (Principle of Fairness): All administrative decisions, resource allocations, and disciplinary proceedings within SCLC shall be conducted impartially, transparently, and without bias or prejudice.

Rule 2.2 (Safety and Well-being): SCLC maintains an absolute commitment to providing a safe, secure, physical and psychological environment free from harassment, intimidation, hazard, or discrimination.

Rule 2.3 (Privacy and Confidentiality): Personal data, user access logs, resource usage histories, and grievance records collected by SCLC are protected under strict confidentiality protocols and will never be shared without explicit consent, except as required by applicable administrative regulations.

Rule 2.4 (Equal Access): Every registered member of the community has an equal right to utilize SCLC facilities, equipment, and services regardless of age, background, identity, or socioeconomic status, subject to neutral operational capacity rules.

3. Rights Framework

Rule 3.1 (Right to Equal Access): Every authorized patron possesses the right to access the general library, open reading halls, digital catalog systems, and public Wi-Fi networks during published operational hours, subject only to space availability.

Rule 3.2 (Right to Respectful Treatment): Patrons and staff have the right to be treated with dignity, courtesy, and respect at all times by all community members and institutional personnel.

Rule 3.3 (Right to Information Privacy): Patrons have the right to inspect what personal information and circulation records are maintained by SCLC under their account, and to request correction of inaccurate data.

Rule 3.4 (Right to Transparent Information): Patrons have the right to clear, accessible information regarding institutional rules, fee structures, opening hours, and scheduled maintenance windows.

Rule 3.5 (Right to Due Process and Appeals): Any patron subjected to adverse administrative or disciplinary action (such as card suspension or fine imposition) has the unconditional right to receive written notice of the reasons and to file a formal appeal under Section 7.

4. Duties and Responsibilities

Rule 4.1 (Mandatory Identification): All individuals on SCLC premises must carry a valid SCLC Identity Card or Temporary Visitor Pass and must display or present it upon reasonable request by SCLC staff or security officers.

Rule 4.2 (Care of Institutional Property): Users are duty-bound to exercise care when handling SCLC property, including books, computer hardware, furniture, audiovisual tools, and facility amenities. Users assume financial responsibility for negligent damage or loss.

Rule 4.3 (Compliance with Staff Directions): Patrons must comply promptly with reasonable instructions and directions issued by SCLC staff members, lab supervisors, library custodians, and emergency wardens.

Rule 4.4 (Duty to Report Safety and Security Issues): Patrons must immediately report any observed safety hazards, physical damage, suspicious activities, unauthorized visitors, or security breaches to the Help Desk or Security Desk.

Rule 4.5 (Library Responsibilities): Library patrons are responsible for ensuring that checked-out items are returned or renewed on or before the designated due date, maintaining silent study zones, and keeping books in pristine condition.

5. Restrictions and Prohibited Conduct

> Notice: Violations of restrictions under Section 5 may lead to immediate eviction from SCLC premises and suspension of access privileges under Section 8.

Rule 5.1 (Restricted Areas): Patrons are strictly prohibited from entering designated staff-only areas, including the Main Server Room (Room 104), Electrical Control Hub, Staff Breakrooms, Administrative Archives, and Maintenance Closets, unless explicitly accompanied by authorized SCLC personnel.

Rule 5.2 (Disruptive Behaviour): Loud vocal noise, phone conversations outside designated phone booths, verbal abuse, offensive language, playing audio without headphones, running in corridors, or engaging in disorderly conduct is strictly prohibited.

Rule 5.3 (Property Damage and Vandalism): Defacing, marking, tearing, or modifying books, writing on desks, re-routing hardware cables, or damaging SCLC physical or digital infrastructure is prohibited and constitutes grounds for legal recovery.

Rule 5.4 (Unauthorised Account Access and Sharing): Account credentials, library cards, and computer lab login IDs are non-transferable. Using another person's account, allowing others to use your login, or attempting unauthorized privilege escalation is strictly prohibited.

Rule 5.5 (Visitor Restrictions): Unregistered visitors are not permitted past the Reception Checkpoint. Registered visitors must remain in public reception or designated guest zones and must be accompanied by their host at all times.

Rule 5.6 (Computer and Network Misuse): The computer network must not be used for downloading illegal content, hacking/penetration testing against external networks, commercial solicitation, cryptocurrency mining, or displaying explicit/obscene content.

6. Standard Operating Procedures

Procedure 6.1 (Library Circulation Procedure):
a. Patrons may borrow up to four (4) physical books simultaneously for a maximum duration of 14 calendar days.
b. Renewals may be requested online or at the circulation desk up to two (2) times, provided no hold request exists from another user.
c. Late returns incur a standard administrative fee of 5 SCLC Credits per day per item.

Procedure 6.2 (Computer Lab Booking Procedure):
a. Workstations must be booked in advance via the Digital Portal or the Terminal Kiosk.
b. Sessions are allocated in maximum slots of 120 minutes per user per day.
c. Users who are more than 15 minutes late for a reserved session automatically forfeit their booking slot.

Procedure 6.3 (Visitor Registration Procedure):
a. All non-member visitors must present valid photo identification at the Main Entrance Security Desk.
b. Visitors are issued a day badge which must be worn visibly on their upper torso at all times while inside SCLC facilities.
c. Visitor passes expire automatically upon exit or at 18:00 daily.

Procedure 6.4 (Facility Access Hours Procedure):
a. SCLC facilities are open Monday through Saturday from 08:00 to 20:00, and Sunday from 10:00 to 16:00.
b. Access outside operational hours is limited strictly to authorized emergency staff and scheduled evening workshop participants.

Procedure 6.5 (Emergency Evacuation Procedure):
a. Upon activation of the fire alarm or public emergency announcement, all activities must cease immediately.
b. Patrons must follow illuminated exit signs to Assembly Point A (North Lawn) or Assembly Point B (South Parking).
c. Elevators are automatically disabled; use emergency stairwells exclusively.

7. Complaints, Grievances and Remedies

Rule 7.1 (Filing a Complaint): Any patron or staff member may lodge a formal complaint regarding service failure, facility conditions, staff conduct, or peer misconduct. Complaints must be submitted in writing via the Digital Portal grievance form or by filing Form SCLC-G1 at the Information Desk.

Rule 7.2 (Grievance Review Process):
a. Upon submission, the Grievance Officer logs the case within 24 hours and issues a tracking reference number.
b. An initial investigation and fact-finding review is conducted within five (5) business days.
c. Both complainant and respondent are provided an opportunity to submit written statements and evidence.

Rule 7.3 (Formal Appeal Process):
a. If a complainant or disciplined party is dissatisfied with the initial decision, an appeal may be filed within seven (7) business days of receiving the determination.
b. Appeals must be submitted directly to the SCLC Appeals Board via email at `appeals@sclc-demo.org` or in person.
c. The Appeals Board shall convene within ten (10) business days, and its ruling shall be final and binding.

Rule 7.4 (Timelines Summary):
• Complaint Logging: Within 24 hours.
• Initial Review & Determination: Within 5 business days.
• Filing Window for Appeal: 7 business days from decision.
• Appeals Hearing & Final Ruling: Within 10 business days of appeal submission.

Rule 7.5 (Available Corrective Actions and Remedies): Potential remedies issued by SCLC include written formal apologies, administrative fine refunds, restoration of suspended borrowing privileges, re-allocation of lab slots, or facility repairs.

8. Disciplinary Measures and Enforcement

Rule 8.1 (Tier 1 - Informal Verbal Warning): Issued for minor, first-time infractions (e.g., elevated noise, eating in restricted zones). Logged informally by facility supervisors.

Rule 8.2 (Tier 2 - Written Warning and Record Note): Issued for repeated minor infractions or deliberate policy breaches (e.g., unreturned items, refusal to show ID). A formal written warning is placed on the user's institutional profile for 6 months.

Rule 8.3 (Tier 3 - Temporary Privileges Restriction): Involves a 7-day to 30-day suspension of borrowing privileges, computer lab access, or facility entry for moderate offenses (e.g., account sharing, unauthorized area entry).

Rule 8.4 (Tier 4 - Facility Suspension and Escalation): Imposed for severe misconduct (e.g., vandalism, verbal abuse, cyber misuse). Access is revoked for up to 180 days, and serious legal violations are referred to relevant external authorities.

Rule 8.5 (Right to Respond / Opportunity to Be Heard): Prior to enforcing any Tier 3 or Tier 4 penalty, the affected user must be provided written notice of the allegations and allowed three (3) business days to submit a written explanation or defense.

9. Emergency, Safety and Security Protocols

Rule 9.1 (Medical Emergency Protocol): In the event of injury or sudden illness, immediately notify any staff member equipped with a radio or activate a First Aid Call Station. Trained SCLC first responders will administer basic aid while emergency medical services are summoned.

Rule 9.2 (Fire and Hazard Alarms): When alarm strobes activate, leave all non-essential personal belongings, proceed calmly to the nearest marked emergency exit, and report to Assembly Point A on the North Lawn.

Rule 9.3 (CCTV Surveillance Notice): For the safety and security of patrons and property, common areas, entry points, reading halls, and computer labs are monitored 24/7 by Closed-Circuit Television (CCTV). Video footage is handled according to Rule 2.3 privacy standards.

10. Rulebook Versioning and Governance

Rule 10.1 (Annual Review Mandate): This rulebook undergoes a formal annual review by the SCLC Governance Board during Q3 of each calendar year.

Rule 10.2 (Amendment Process): Proposed amendments must be published 14 calendar days prior to adoption, allowing community feedback via the Digital Portal. Minor typographical corrections do not require public notice.

Rule 10.3 (Versioning System): Major updates alter the integer version (e.g., Version 2.0). Minor structural edits alter the decimal version (e.g., Version 1.1). Digital AI models must re-index the knowledge base within 24 hours of any version change.

11. Know Your Rights (KYR) Summary Matrix

This quick-reference matrix summarizes core operational policies for quick user reference and automated AI query matching.

Category	Key Provisions & Rights	Obligations & Restrictions	Reference ID
Equal Access & Services	Right to use library, Wi-Fi, reading halls, and public digital terminals without discrimination.	Must carry valid ID card; must adhere to quiet study zones and capacity limits.	Rule 3.1, 4.1 Proc 6.4
Computer & Cyber Access	Right to 120 mins/day computer reservation and high-speed internet access.	No account sharing, no unauthorized login, no illegal downloads or server access.	Rule 5.4, 5.6 Proc 6.2
Visitors & Guests	Right to bring visitors into public reception and designated lounge areas.	Must register at Security Desk; visitors must display day pass and remain accompanied.	Rule 5.5 Proc 6.3
Facility Security			Rule 5.1, 9.2 Proc 6.5

Category	Key Provisions & Rights	Obligations & Restrictions	Reference ID
	Right to safe environment, transparent CCTV usage, and emergency assistance.	Strictly no entry to Server Room 104 or restricted staff zones; obey evacuation orders.
Grievances & Appeals	Right to file formal complaints, receive written findings, and appeal disciplinary actions.	Complaints must be filed via Form SCLC-G1; appeals must be lodged within 7 days.	Rule 3.5, 7.1 Rule 7.3, 8.5

“This rulebook is entirely fictional and created solely for demonstration and testing of the Digital Legal Awareness Assistant. It does not represent any real institution and does not constitute legal advice.”